THE ALTAR.

ANDREWS—COOK.—On the 18th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. A. Andrews, father of the groom, Ashton F. Andrews, Esq., J. P. of Stockton, Manitoba, and Miss Anna Hannah, only daughter of John Cook, Esq., J. P. of Pheasant Forks, and sister of the Rev. W. A. Cook, of Grenfell.

PHEASANT FORKS.

—Rev. A. Andrews, chairman of the district presided at the quarterly meeting of the Methodist societies here on Wednesday last. Eleven officers were present and the business was soon dispatched.

Mr. J. W. Dickinson, who has laboured on this mission as pastor since last July was recommended by the unanimous vote of the meeting to the district meeting and conference as suitable for the ministry.

—Died on the 10th inst., on the P. M. Colony, Mr. W. Watts, aged 52 years. A large number of persons attended his funeral. The Rev. C. S. Willis gave an appropriate address. Mr. J. W. Dickinson also took part in the service. Mr. Watts was well respected by his neighbors, was a local preacher in connection with the Methodists and made a good end. For about two years he has been afflicted with paralysis but was able to get about until a few weeks before his death.

—At the quarterly meeting of the Methodist mission held last week on the Primitive Methodist Colony, Mr. J. W. Dickinson, a young man who has been laboring for the year under the direction of the chairman of the district, was very cordially and unanimously recommended to the District meeting, as a suitable candidate for admission to the conference as a probationer for the ministry. He will have to have his usual examinations in April, including English branches, theology and Greek grammar. Mr. Dickinson bids fair to be a useful minister.

—At the Queen's: J. Leslie, R. Raiton, W. Broley, Indian Head; D. Raiton, Sinitata; G. Goldie, Fort Qu'Appelle; W. Newton, Balgonie; W. Treewartha, T. Thorson, S. F. Calender, McLean; V. Wiseman, Toronto; W. W. McMillan, E. Mackay, Winnipeg; R. S. Parks, Whitewood; W. J. Battell, Moose Jaw; M. G. Gibbs, Regina; B. M. Garratt, Kenlis; A. E. Wright, Pheasant Forks; T. O. Davis, Prince Albert.

—Dr. Clark's Sarsaparilla cures all kind of blood diseases from a common pimple to the worst case of Scrofula. Climax Kidney Cure is a positive Cure for all kidney complaints.

QU'APPELLE.

—Mr. C. J. Atkinson, of the Regina Journal, was in town on Saturday last.

—Mr. T. O. Davis, of Prince Albert, passed through here on Friday last on a trip to Winnipeg.

—The minutes of the first meeting of our new municipal council are crowded out. They will appear next week.

—St. Valentine's day will soon be here, and you will find valentines, both fancy and comic at THE PROGRESS store.

—Mr. W. Hartwell, has started a shop for the repair of all kinds of boots and shoes. He is to be found on Welsh street.

—The excursionists to the eastern provinces are beginning to return. Mr. J. Longpre was the first to get back again. He arrived here Saturday night last.

—Some of the ladies were yesterday given a very agreeable surprise in the shape of a nicely prepared tea, and realized that some of the bachelors at least can keep house without their assistance.

—Old Boreas looking ahead and seeing the time approaching when he will have to retreat north, has recently humped up his back so high that it is nearly broken. We scarcely think he will be able to get up another such a breeze this winter, and as the days are lengthening out and the sun's rays becoming more direct, he will ere long have to let go his grip on us.

—The name of the boy that was frozen south of McLean was George Blake and not James Melton as reported. As the lad had worked only a few weeks for Mr. Stewart it is not right he should bear the whole of the funeral expenses, and it is proposed to repay Mr. Stewart by subscription. A list has been started, and any who will contribute will find the list at the PROGRESS office.

—At the Leland: G. T. Oliver, J. Clegg, H. G. Lewis, J. J. Fanning, Winnipeg; H. Banham, D. H. Gillespie, J. Creamer, V.S., Insp. Drayner, N.W.M.P.; C. Wilson, C. J. Atkinson, Regina; J. M. Clark, A. M. Smith, Toronto; W. Sutherland, Fort Qu'Appelle; H. G. Levitus, Montreal; P. Movat, J. Brown, Prince Albert; Dr. Hutchinson, Grenfell.

—UPPER CANADA BIBLE SOCIETY. —A public meeting is to be held on Friday evening the 6th inst., in the Methodist church for the purpose of having addresses by Rev. A. Andrews, agent of the Bible Society for the North West Territories, and others, on the object and work of the Bible Society, and for forming a branch society in Qu'Appelle, and establishing a Depository here for the sale of cheap Bibles.

—A concert will be given in connection with the Presbyterian church, in the emigrant building, on Wednesday, Feb. 1st. The committee have spared no expense in securing the best of talent, both vocal and instrumental, and hope to make this the concert of the season. Mr. Jones of the Tanner settlement will appear in costume and give a number of his comic recitations and songs. The Brass Band will be in attendance. Proceeds in aid of building fund. Tickets 25 cents, children 10 cents. Doors open at 10 o'clock, performance at 10.30.

—We regard it a painful duty to refer to the unseemly conduct of Coroner Hutchinson and one of his juryman during and after the inquest on the body of the late Frank McBride, who was killed by a freight train here on the 19th inst. We gather from those present that his actions betrayed the too free use of permit or contraband. He was not only officious and insulting to the friends of the deceased, but he and one Thompson, whom he had to assist him acted in a most revolting manner after the inquest, when the remains were being placed in the coffin. Thompson had to be put out of the room by the collar for his contemptible language, and the coroner was threatened with arrest for drunkenness.

—A party that such a man should be in the coroner's office, and that he should be a new appointment here in Qu'Appelle.

—The skating concert by the Brass Band was held at the rink last evening and was a grand success. The playing of the band has reached a very high standard of proficiency under the able tuition of Mr. H. Walker. Every member does his part well, and too high praise cannot be accorded the band as a whole for the excellence of their performance. The Qu'Appelle brass band could play most creditably with those of older and larger towns or even cities. The skating was much enjoyed by a large number, and all present spent a very pleasant evening. The following was the program:

March, "Qu'Appelle," H. Walker.
Selection, "Trotteurs," Verdi.
Waltz, "Songs of the Woods," arr. H. Walker.
Schottische, "Nelly," H. Walker.
Medley, "Gens of Erin," Sealton.
Polka, "Cuckoo and Cricket," Coote.
Waltz, "Hillia," Goldfrey.
March, "Bronz Horse," Brass Band.
Song and Chorus, "Golden Showers," Winterfield.
Waltz, "God Save the Queen."

—SAD ACCIDENT.

On Thursday of last week, an accident happened near the C.P.R. station here which caused the death of Frank McBride, aged 21 years. He was a brakeman on a freight approaching the station, and being on the front part of the train he was going back to put on brakes, when it is thought he fell between the cars as he was getting down off a box car onto a flat car. Nearly the whole train must have passed over him as he was terribly mangled and cut up. When the train hands missed the young man they started to search for him and found his dead body scattered in pieces along the track in a most shocking manner. The deceased was respected by all who knew him, being a young man of quiet and steady habits. An inquest was held the following day by Dr. Hutchinson, of Grenfell, Messrs. W. S. Redpath, H. A. Axford, S. S. Scott, Fred. Bell, J. W. Roberts and C. D. Thompson acted as juryman. The following is the verdict:

"Frank McBride, on the 19th day of January, 1888, at Qu'Appelle, met his death by accident whilst in the execution of his duty, by falling from the top of a car of a freight train and being run over by the said train."

The jury added to the verdict the following rider:

"We the undersigned juryman being anxious to record the dangers to which brakemen are at all times, but more especially in the winter, exposed in the performance of their duties, and deeming it only right and proper that their employers should make compensation to the families of such as are killed in the performance of their duties, in cases similar to the one now inquired into concerning the death of Frank McBride, wish to put it in record and accordingly do so as a rider to our verdict at the inquest, that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company should pay good and sufficient compensation to the family of the said Frank McBride for the loss they have sustained through his accidental death whilst faithfully performing his duties."

Mr. W. J. Battell, a cousin of the deceased, came down from Moose Jaw and at the request of the deceased's mother sent the remains to his home at Grafton, Ontario.

SUCCESSFUL EMIGRATION UNDER THE CHURCH COLONISATION LAND SOCIETY.

Professor Tanner sends us a copy of his report on Christ church Settlement in the Canadian North West:

I desire to take the earliest opportunity, on my return from the Canadian N. W. for presenting to the Council of the Church Colonisation Land Society a report upon their settlement at Christ church near Qu'Appelle. I am pleased to be able to state that that settlement is a success, whether determined by the prosperity of the emigrant families located upon it, or by the commercial advantages thereby arising to the society. This settlement has been organized upon a plan which distinguished in this society reports as plan No. 1, and its distinguishing features consisted in providing as the unit of settlement a group of 12 houses each, having its 40 acres of land, and reserving at the centre of the settlement 160 acres of land, upon which glebe land for assisting the permanent support of a clergyman could be provided, and upon which a village centre could be developed with school accommodation, to be followed by a church, and also a cottage hospital, stores, etc. It was estimated that the cost of the 12 houses would amount to $2,000 and that the return from the investment would be about 5% per annum. It is as also indicated that if this group of 12 were regulated as the central position of the settlement, considerable economy and numerous additional advantages would arise from two things being added to the settlement, whereby 16 additional homes could be formed and the percentage upon the investment would be thereby further increased. I am now in a position to report that the estimates have been tested upon the central position of the settlement and that the income arising from the expenditure is higher than was anticipated, being above 6%. The expenditure upon the six 40 acre farms has not exceeded $1,000, and these are occupied by good emigrant families under safe agreements and they are producing an income of over $72 per annum. If from this income the cost of local superintendence be deducted, a net return of over 6% can be permanently relied upon. As soon as the remainder of the centre of the settlement has been completed a still more satisfactory income can be secured. It must also be stated that the investment has been made upon freehold land, which is annually increasing in value.

But whilst this commercial success has been secured, the welfare and prosperity of the emigrant families have been equally provided for, and they represent as happy and successful emigrants as any in Canada. On the day following their arrival at Qu'Appelle, they removed into their homes between three and four miles distant from the railway station and on the second day the men and boys very generally entered upon work in the immediate neighborhood, the men getting from $1.50 (6s. 3d.) to $2 (8s. 4d.) daily wages. It soon became evident that instead of taking all their wages in cash, they could exchange it advantageously with employers for pigs, poultry, or even a cow thereby rendering their skill as farm workmen equal to so much cash capital. Each family also received from the society three acres of wheat and one acre of potatoes and other roots for table use equal to their requirements for a full year, and this was included within the advantages secured to them by a monthly rental of $5 (about 20s.). It is worthy of note that the additional cost to each family for having such a home and 40 acres of land located in a neighbourhood where there was plenty of employment, as compared with free land many miles away from such employment, did not amount to one shilling weekly, whilst they gained from 36s. to 48s. weekly by being located near to employment. After a stay of about six weeks in Qu'Appelle, I left the several families upon the Christchurch settlement, contented, happy and prosperous anxious for their friends in England to be able to be located near them under equally favourable conditions.

Before concluding this report it will be desirable for me to add that the success which has attended the Christchurch Settlement must not lead anyone to suppose that the thousand and one difficulties associated with emigration can be provided for under this or any one system. It is enough to recognize the fact that meets the requirements of very many of our best emigrant families, that it gives them facilities for removing themselves from conditions of trial and difficulty in England into happiness and prosperity in Canada, that the expenditure by which it is accomplished may be made a thoroughly safe investment, producing good interest, and that, at the same time, the establishment of Church centres may thus be carried out in Canada under conditions which are favourable for their permanent success.

INDIAN HEAD. PRESBYTERIAN CONCERT.

The concert in connection with St. Andrews church came off on Wednesday evening and notwithstanding the cold weather, a large and appreciative audience assembled.

The program which was of considerable merit was gone through in an excellent manner. It might not be out of place to mention the capital rendering of the recitations The Life Boat, by Mr. Jerrold; Greenwich Fair and How Rubenstein played the piano, by Mr.
Jones also Somebody's darling, by Miss Lee. Below is the program:

PART I.—Will you come with me my pretty one, Mrs. Moody and Mrs. Wilkinson; Put me in my little bed, Miss Bessie Leggett; The Life Boat, Mr. Jerrold; The Light-house light, Miss Crawford; Cantata, The Misses Lee; Glyncies of School Life, Miss Ross and G.
Thompson; I've wandered to the hills Maggie, Miss Bird; Greenwich Fair, Mr. Jones.

PART II.—Bright sparkles in the churchyard, The Misses Lee and Messrs. McLean; Far away, Mr.
W. Lee; Somebody's darling, Miss Ida Lee; Little Hero, Mr. M. Mc-Lean; Nearer Home, The Misses Crawford and Lee; How Rubenstein played the piano, Mr. Jones; Love at home, Mrs. Moody and Miss Wilkinson; When the mists have rolled away, Chorus; God save the Queen.

The success of the entertainment is in no small degree attributed to Miss Crawford, who had spared no pains to bring the affair to a successful issue. We hope soon again to have the pleasure of spending such another pleasant evening.

COUNCIL MINUTES.

The newly elected council having
